

Sun Pharma: Fire in Unit 1 at Panoli

Mumbai/ Panoli, August 6: A fire broke out in one of the 3 units at Sun Pharma's bulk active plant in Panoli early this morning and was brought under control in half an hour. This unit manufactures intermediates for bulk actives.

4 workers were injured, 2 with burns (20 and 40 degree), 2 with minor injuries. Their condition is stable; they are under proper medical treatment.

The cause of the fire is being investigated but may be due to short circuit after excessive rain. The extent of the damage will take time to assess.
